

Save the Date

April 26-28, 2019

Addiction Bereavement Retreat at Loyola Retreat House Morristown, New Jersey

For Men and Women who have lost a loved one from drugs or alcohol

Connect with others who understand this unique grief

Learn from peers and licensed professionals
how to deal with the emotional challenges after the loss

Enjoy meditative walks on beautiful gardens and grounds

Learn the meaning of:

“The New Normal”
“Continuing the Bond”
“Meaning Making”

Participate in an educational and spiritual (not religious) experience

A not-for-profit retreat hosted by:

Thomas Dwyer, LPC, LCADC, CT
Gateway Center for Counseling and Recovery
(908) 665-1000
www.gatewaycenterforcounseling.com

Weekend includes:

2 Nights
6 Meals
Workshops by licensed clinicians
Workshop materials
Coffee and tea available
throughout the day
Cost: $250

Lani Bonifacic, LCSW
(201) 786-8572
www.lanibonifacic.com

For more information, contact Tom or Lani

Please note that attendance openings fill-up quickly. At such time, a waiting list will be started. Early registration is recommended.